

29 November 1950

Brigadier General Victor A. Conrad
Chief, Army Communications Service
Department of the Army
Room 5B186, Pentagon
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Conrad:

In confirmation of my telephone conversation of yesterday with Major Rierson I should like to express my most sincere appreciation for the splendid special service rendered [redacted] on 28 November 1950 following a request by the President for the full text of a 27 November 1950 PRAVDA article entitled "The American Press on Differences Between the Signatories of the North Atlantic Treaty."

At the time this request was received approximately half of this rather lengthy article was delayed somewhere en route from [redacted] to Washington. Due to the splendid cooperation we received from your Signal Center we were able to receive, reproduce and deliver the full text of this article in a minimum of time.

I am informed that among others M/Sgt. Thomas Harmon, Chief Operator, and T. H. Rauschenberger were particularly responsible for our receipt of this article with the least possible delay.

Sincerely,
